for the Shiping Board. I would like Congress to know we are specifly arranging the discontinuance of many lines of service which are being operated at a loss to the goverament, and we are hoping soon to have an end to all the unfortunate charter contracts under which the charterers are made whole and share in the profits, if any, while the gov-ernment bears the trunt of all the losses. This is a very intolerable arrangement and is being ended as speedily as the situation will permit.

Not Responsible for Condition. "It must be kept in mind at all imes that the administrative agents who are now asking for the confidence and the co-operation of Con-gress are in no wise responsible for the condition of affairs which have shocked the country and given the Congress such great concern. They have only recently been called to the ervice of correcting the intolerable state of affairs which we inherited, after which it is very much hoped they may make gratifying progress toward the firm establishment of an American merchant marine.

"We must not fail in our efforts now. There have been unspeakable nonneed this morning that the Criminal Court grand jury, summoned to meet next Thursday, would consider every shred of evidence connected with the crime. This statement was authorized just after Sheriff Gate and Adjutant-General Brumit, of the Tennessee National Guard, had announced that all precautions necessary to protect the negro. Frank Martia, and other criminals in the juic had been taken.

The miners' president added that he had not been invited to attend. The miners' president added that he had first to Mingo, so far as I am concerned."

We have time to think soberly now, and the correction of this situations roads, and discounted reports here that miners in Boone County the work. The waste can be halted almost instantly. The losses must be brought to a minimum at a very early date, and I very much hope that the co-operation of the Congress and the administration will lead to gratifying results in the establishment of American carriers by sea which will meet our aspirations in founding a new and ample mercantile merchant.

of Children to Aid Propaganda

BERLAN, Aug. 20.—The use of little children for propaganda pur-oses by the German Communist party leaders is characterized as a 'scandalous and shameless procedure" by some of the leaders of more conservative parties, who have taken particular exception to a recent demonstration" in which school children participated.

The children were "called out" by flaming posters, and some of them carried banners protesting against religious instruction in the hools; against corporal punishment, and against the government, with special reference to the police.

Revolutionary songs were sung, and then a 12-year-old boy made Revolutionary songs were sung, and then a 12-year-old boy made a speech criticizing the conduct of the schools and religious instruction. The Communists frequently dress young girls and boys in bright ted garments from head to heel and have them parade the streets carrying banners of protest against the government's attitude in some particular case which is occupying the public's attention at the time. The police have never interfered with these "demonstrations."
